

UXD

Strategy Plane:

- Aim: A recipe site for cooking enthusiasts where they can view recipes and add their own for others to see. Clean, clear layout

Scope Plane:

- What's needed: the user needs to be able to view clear information, easily understandable with limited filters to sort the data.

Structure Plane:

- learnable, navbar, predictable, clean

Skeleton Plane:

- See wireframe. Sticky navbar, clear search and minimal design, No clutter!

Surface Plane:

- Light colours, lots of white. Pops of light greens & blue pastels. Recipe photos in circles maybe (in search)
